J Randy Forbes

PRSRT STD M.C.

Every man, woman, and child in the United States owes $38,840 as their share of the national debt.

I want your input on this part of the LEAF Plan.

Grade our current direction and my proposed plan from A (solid plan) to F (failing plan).

Current Direction

____ Continued growth in federal spending
____ Continued deficits and debt
____ Confusing and costly tax code
____ No accountability for waste or fraudulant spending

Randy's Lean Plan

____ 10% cut to federal government
____ Balanced budget required by law
____ Optional flat tax
____ Commission to address abuses and duplication

TURNING A NEW LEAF IN GOVERNMENT

Randy Forbes doesn't believe in saddling future generations with the bill for Washington's reckless spending. Our children and grandchildren deserve better.

Randy was one of 17 out of 435 Representatives who voted against all stimulus and bailout packages under both Presidents Bush and Obama.

He has a plan to turn a bloated government of Washington bureaucrats into a lean and efficient government:

- A 10% across-the-board cut to the federal government that protects military pay and construction, veterans' benefits, and seniors' healthcare.
- A balanced budget amendment to the Constitution to rein in out-of-control spending and mandate Congress stop increasing our federal debt. HJRes 1
- An optional flat tax to simplify the tax code and eliminate taxes on savings, capital gains, and dividends and put money back in the hands of American families and businesses. HR 1040
- A commission to root out waste, abuse, fraud, and duplication in the federal government. HR 1802

It's time for LEAN government.
